

THE SOUTHERN ADVOCATE

VOL. 7 NO. 37

MOUND BAYOU, MISS., SATURDAY, JUNE 29 1940

HOME EDITION

Boy Scout Director To Visit Mound Bayou

Mr. A. J. Taylor, Negro Scout Director of the National Council, of New York City will speak to the Scout Leaders and other interested persons, at Mound Bayou, Sunday afternoon, June 30.

Mr. Taylor will lead in discussing the methods and fundamentals of the Scout Program. Mayor B. A. Green will serve as chairman of this meeting.

The Negro Boy Scouts of Mound Bayou, Greenville, Shelby and Hollandale will meet, Tuesday, July 2, at Hollandale, for an overnight camp, under the supervision of Mr. Walter Lynch of Hollandale and Mr. Taylor.

—IN MEMORY—

Dear Ann: It has been 3 years since you left (July 4, 37) but we still think of you as our own little girl.

Signed,

Ernest Cammack, husband
Mary E. Slate, sister
Gertrude Slate Stringer, sister
Wesley Slate, brother

Miss Miranda Nalls entertained her little daughter, Gloria Blondine on her 2nd birthday, Wednesday, by having some of her little friends for tea. Among those present were: Mattie B. Dorsey, Pearline Nash, Laronzo and Norvel Powell, Jr., Otto-wiess Thomas, Hilda Myers, W. C. Myers, Charles W. Harvey, Eugene P. Jones, Charles H. Coleman, Charline and Charles Terrell, Ed-die Lee Colbert, Queenola Ward, Janet Johnson and Lelia Bell Mitchel. Many little gifts were presented. Refreshments were served.

Local News

CORRECTION

In last week's papers we stated that it was reported that Mrs. C. L. Keys had purchased the house which formerly belonged to Mrs. Ellis. This report was false. The house was bought by Mrs. Charlie (Nan) Harvey. The Southern Advocate regrets this error.

Rev. and Mrs. A. H. Howard Motored to Hollandale, Monday.

Mrs. P. J. Smith, Mrs. M. A. Edwards, Mr. Willie D. Anderson and Mr. Walter D. Anderson, received word Friday that their brother Houston (Jack) Anderson had been shot to death. The body arrived here Thursday.

The A. K. A. health clinic will again be held in Bolivar County this year, beginning at Cleveland, July 8. The group will be headed by Dr. Dorthy Boulding Ferebee, and will be in Mound Bayou, Tuesday, July 9.

Miss Vera Fields has returned from Memphis, to spend the summer with Miss Eolis Anderson.

Mrs. Catherine Twine of Memphis, is here visiting Mrs. T. B. Walker.

Mrs. A. R. Pressley was called to Yazoo City last week because of the illness of her father. She was accompanied by her son Greenlee.

Mr. J. E. Mitchell has returned home after spending several days in Memphis.

Mr. E. M. Rogers died Tuesday. He was Deputy Organizer for the Afro American Sons and Daughters. His wife, Mrs. Lillian P. Rogers is also widely known for her services as supervisor of Negro Schools in Sunflower County, and President of the State Teachers Association. Funeral services were set for Thursday afternoon.

Founders' Day To Be Celebrated July 12

Mayor B. A. Green and the General Committee on arrangements for the 53rd Founder's Day celebration are asking the co operation of every citizen in getting ready for the events which will be held Friday, July 12.

An attempt is being made to make this the best celebration of its kind ever held and every one is asked to join in a town-wide "clean-up, fix-up, paint-up" campaign.

Mrs. Antionett Pettitt made a trip to Memphis, this week.

It is reported that Eugene Price has been called so preach.

An inspirational program for Sunday School and B. Y. P. U. workers in District No. 5 will held at Pleasant Valley Church, Alligator, Miss., Sunday, June 30, under the supervision of Wm. Brown, A. W. Marshall and B. A. Wade, District Directors. While the meeting is being held especially for Sunday School and B. Y. P. U. Workers. Everydody is invited.

NEWS ABOUT TOWN

By T. P. Felder

Little Craven L. Cooper Jr., of Chicago, Ill., the grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Cox, was entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Norman. About 40 kiddies enjoyed the games and refreshments.

The N. Y. A. faculty and students enjoyed a picnic out at Mesdames Pearl Davis and Mary Swan-agen's homes.

Mr. Willie L. Thomas of Jackson visited our city to attend the funeral of his grandmother, Mrs. Maggie Thomas who was buried at the White Zion M. B. Church.